

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20350

W/CH-1

IN REPLY REFER TO
OPNAVINST 5060.5D
Op-09B19
21 DEC 1974

OPNAV INSTRUCTION 5060.5D

From: Chief of Naval Operations

Subj: Saluting Ships and Stations; designation of

Ref: (a) Article 1012, NAVREGS 1973

Encl: (1) List of ship-types designated as saluting ships
(2) List of designated saluting stations

1. Purpose. To promulgate lists of ships and stations designated to fire gun salutes.

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 5060.5C of 23 Oct 1969.

3. Background. Reference (a) defines saluting ships and stations as those so designated by the Secretary of the Navy or his duly authorized representative. The Secretary of the Navy designates those stations authorized to return national gun salutes fired by foreign warships. The Chief of Naval Operations is the duly authorized representative of the Secretary of the Navy to designate all other saluting ships and stations.

4. Action

a. Enclosure (1) lists ship-types designated as saluting ships. New construction ships and those undergoing modernization of those types listed in enclosure (1) shall be equipped with saluting batteries.

b. Some ship-types, not listed in enclosure (1), which are equipped with 3"/50 SF, 5"/38, and 5"/54 SF caliber guns, possess a saluting capability by using assembled saluting cartridges with installed ordnance. Commanders in Chief and Fleet Commanders may direct ships so equipped to fire or return gun salutes when required in the national interest.

c. Additions or deletions to lists contained in enclosures (1) and (2) will be made as necessary, based upon requirements of the fleet and the naval shore activities. Addressees are requested to recommend appropriate changes to enclosures (1) and (2) to the Chief of Naval Operations.

J. B. LINDER
Assistant Vice Chief of Naval Operations
Director of Naval Administration
